

THE INTENTIONAL
LEARNER'S MANIFESTO

THE INTENTIONAL ACADEMY IS

[A C A U S E]

not our mission, but your mission to reach your destination

[A C O M M U N I T Y]

of those who have gone before and those who are coming behind

[A C O L L E C T I O N]

of resources that will enable you to complete your mission

THE INTENTIONAL ACADEMY

[TIME]

The Intentional Academy is going to take you to a place where you realize that success comes from hard work, but not overwork.

You're going to be hyper aware of the value of each responsibility you allow to enter your life.

You're going to work on the right things, make progress, and have plenty of time left for everything else that you value.

THE INTENTIONAL ACADEMY

[M O N E Y]

The Intentional Academy is going to take you to a place where you know what to do with your money to enjoy life now, while setting yourself up for prosperity in the future. You'll understand how debt can take over your life, and how to break free.

Most importantly, you'll know how to control your money so that it doesn't control you.

[CAREER]

The Intentional Academy is going to take you to a place where you truly love your work. You're going to find the intersection of your passion and ability. You'll stand out from the crowd as a leader, a change-maker – laughing when someone suggests you “apply online,” because you'll bypass the system altogether.

Most importantly, you're going to learn to add so much value that you'll become indispensable.

I AM AN

INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

MIND THE GAP

I see a gap between what I learn in school and what I need to succeed. I don't wait for the system to fix itself, I leverage its strengths and overcome its weaknesses.

I AM AN INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

I believe that my life is my fault. I may have started from a different point than everyone else.

My path may be easier or harder than everyone else's. But I will not let my past dictate my future.

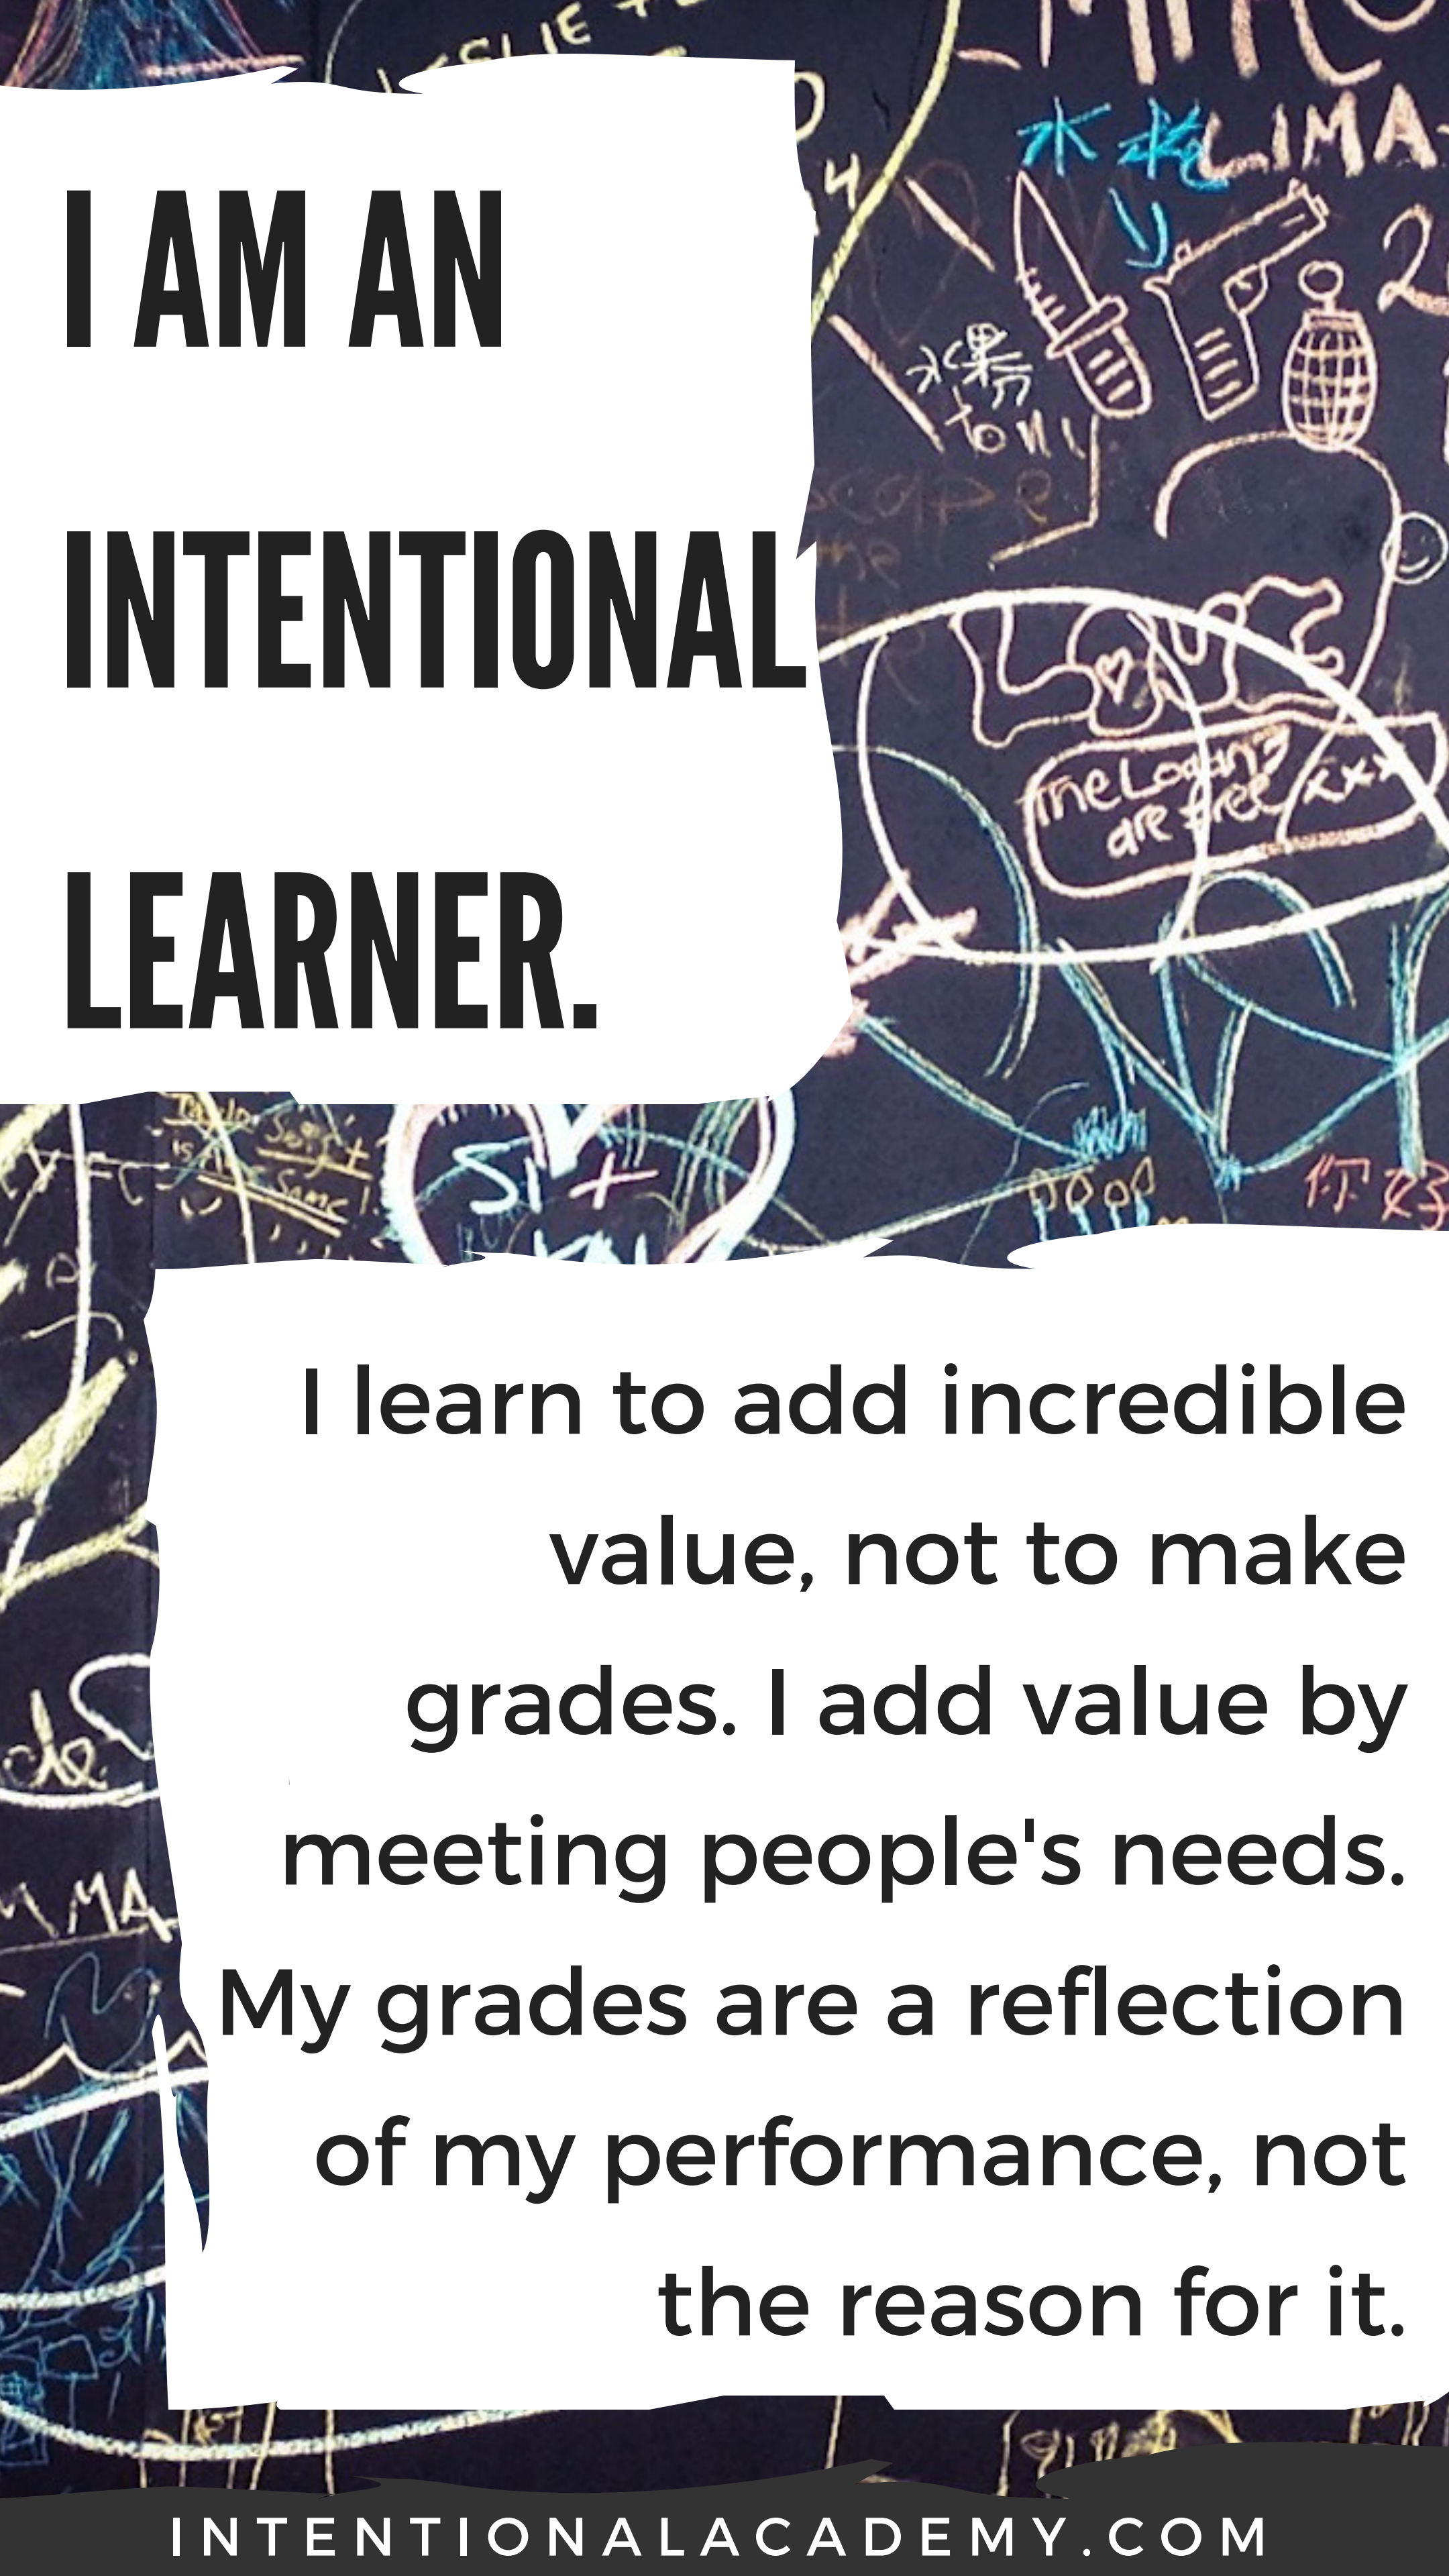

I have the power to act and succeed, or to do nothing and fail.

I AM AN INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

I own my time and my money. I realize that both are finite and I decide how I spend them. I do not allow either to limit my future.

I AM AN INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

I learn to add incredible value, not to make grades. I add value by meeting people's needs. My grades are a reflection of my performance, not the reason for it.

I AM AN INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

I affirm that my ability to breathe does not entitle me to an income. My ability to create something that changes a person's life leads to payment proportional to the impact. I am not paid by the hour, I am paid by the outcome.

I AM AN INTENTIONAL LEARNER.

I may not know my dream yet, but I know where my current path leads. I am not burying my head in the sand, hoping that if I follow the herd good things will happen. I embrace the future I see for myself, but I hold it loosely. I am in the business of opening doors.

I know that I will perform as I practice, and so I practice well. I am not waiting for certification. My results are my certification.
